CRI ICT S.A.
Java Systems Analyst
Brussels, Belgium

HIGH QUALITY IT SERVICES
CRI, established by IBM in 1981 in Luxembourg, is a European Group operating within the IT & Telecoms ecosystem. Currently the Group is present in 10 serving, through a comprehensive technology offering, the European Union Headquarters, Telecom Operators, Financial Institutions and Governmental bodies in 23 countries. CRI Group has built substantial expertise and has significantly shaped the market in its business areas, while continuously invests in new ideas, services and products.

We are looking for a talented individual able to perform the below tasks:

- Business and user requirements gathering;
- Analysis and validation;
- System design and definition;
- Draft technical documentation;
- System planning and follow-up;
- Integration/acceptance testing of IT systems and guiding business users for activations of new products.

Necessary skills for the role are the following:

- University degree in Computer Science with minimum of 4 years of relevant IT experience;
- Minimum 3 years of experience in Systems Analysis: system definition; business and user requirements gathering, analysis and validation; system design; technical documentation; system planning and follow-up);
- Minimum 3 years of experience in Java, Java Enterprise Edition, SOAP, SOA, Web Services, HTML, XML, XSL, Unicode, Apache, IIS, SQL Server, Oracle DBMS, Java IDE and Eclipse;
- Practical knowledge in integration/acceptance testing of IT systems (document/file management, web applications) and in guiding business users for activations of new products (writing/updating user manuals or procedures, training material, acting as 1st line key user support, etc);
- Excellent knowledge of English language.

If you are interested in our opportunity please send us your detailed CV in English at jobs@cri-group.eu

Make your business happen

www.cri-group.eu